Study Abroad UC San Diego Scholarships Application, Spring 2016

For participants departing in Summer 2016 or Fall 2016

UC San Diego students studying abroad received approximately $650,000 in study abroad scholarships last year for their programs. If you are wondering “Should I apply for a scholarship?” The answer is always YES! If you don’t apply you will definitely not receive a scholarship award.

The scholarships managed through our office for this cycle include:

- Friends of the International Center Scholarships
- Chris Borton Memorial Scholarship
- Study Abroad, UC San Diego General Scholarships (3.0 minimum)
- OAP Scholarships for the following programs: API, IFSA-Butler, ISA, Semester at Sea, SIT, TEAN, USAC

You can pick up a scholarship flyer from our office for more detailed information about these scholarships.

Checklist

- Put your name and PID at the top of EVERY page of the entire application
- Scholarship Application (this form, first 5 pages—page 6 goes to your Recommender)
- Personal Statement (see instructions on page 2)
- Statement of Financial Need (see instructions on page 2)
- TritonLink Academic History (Must show grades through Winter 2016 and classes through current quarter)
- Letter of Recommendation (see instructions on page 2)
- A copy of the Budget Worksheet for the program for which you have been accepted or to which you are applying. (this is in addition to the financial information required on page 4)
- A copy of your 2015/16 Financial Aid Award notice, if applicable
- Disclosures (read and sign page 5)

Please turn in a paper copy of all documents on the checklist above to the Main Office of the International Center in person by 4:00pm on March 30, 2016.

Deadline: Wednesday, March 30, 2016, 4:00pm, International Center Main Office
Prompts for Statements (Two statements needed for application—Put your name and PID on each page)

1) Personal Statement (please submit typed and double-spaced)
Write a Personal Statement in 500 words or less (between 1-2 pages) addressing all of the following:
- How does your program abroad relate to your academic, career, and/or personal objectives?
- Describe your participation in extracurricular and community service activities.
- What are your favorite hobbies and personal interests?
To address the above, you may want to consider:
- Your ability to adapt to different cultures
- How studying abroad may impact you
- Your personal characteristics and experiences that will help you while abroad

2) Statement of Financial Need (please submit typed and double-spaced)
Write a Statement of Financial Need of 500 words or less addressing all of the following:
- Estimated need
- Current funding ability (include any work, fundraising, other scholarship awards)
To write a statement:
- Do not restate information from your Personal Statement
- Address unusual circumstances that affect your eligibility for financial aid or ability to pay the cost of your study abroad program
- Examples may include no parent support, first-generation college student, re-entry student, single parent, parental unemployment, bankruptcy, unforeseen medical expenses, siblings in college, property loss due to fire, flood, or earthquake

PLEASE NOTE: You do not need to be a financial aid recipient to have financial need.

Letter of Recommendation Instructions (One Letter of Rec needed for scholarship application)
You will need a letter of recommendation for this scholarship. Please follow these guidelines:
You will need to print the last page of this application, fill out the top section, and give it to the recommender to complete. If you fail to sign and mark the waiver, Study Abroad, UC San Diego, will automatically waive your access to this letter. It is important to make sure this form is seen by your recommender and be sure to let them know the date of the scholarship deadline (March 30, 2016). Also, please provide the recommender information about the scholarship(s) you are applying to, including eligibility and special requirements.

- Try to obtain a letter from a UCSD faculty member or other academic
- Best not to submit a letter of recommendation from a supervisor, counselor, lab manager, or extracurricular supervisor unless this person’s knowledge truly relates directly to your intended study abroad
- Do not submit a letter of recommendation from someone at your high school

PLEASE NOTE: If your study abroad program required a letter of recommendation you may use this same letter for your scholarship application(s) but you must let us know so we can look for your letter of recommendation in TritonsAbroad and attach it to your scholarship. Please email us at abroad@ucsd.edu with the following information:
- Subject Line: “Letter of Recommendation in TritonsAbroad”
- Your full name
- The name of the program for which you should already have a letter of recommendation in TritonsAbroad
- All of the scholarships to which you are applying

Deadline: Wednesday, March 30, 2016, 4:00pm, International Center Main Office
By filling out this form you will be considered for all of the scholarships listed on the first page for which you meet minimum eligibility.
