Modernism + Design: The Bauhaus Experience

Global Seminar 2018
About Us

Professor Sue Peerson (speerson@ucsd.edu)

Professor Mirle Rabinowitz Bussell (mbussell@ucsd.edu)
Travel 5,852 miles, equivalent to 9,417 kilometers.
Across 9 Time Zones.
A Bit of Context

- Berlin is the capital
  - Population 3.5 million, makes up its own region
  - Multi-cultural, modern metropolis
- Weimar is more in the countryside
  - Population 65k
  - Sizeable student population because of the universities
Why Bauhaus?

- Pioneering school in the teaching and practice of art, architecture, planning and design
- Significant contributor to the launch of the International Style and Modernism
- Legacy is still influential today
Why Weimar?

- First home of Bauhaus University
- Charming European college town
- Centrally located and close to Berlin, Dessau, and Frankfurt
- Lively arts and culture scene
- Culinary hot spot
UC San Diego comparison to Bauhaus
Weimar
Bauhaus Universität
Our Classes

USP 173GS: History of Urban Planning and Design

USP 183GS: International Urban Design Practicum
Examples of Student Work
Examples of Student Work
Examples of Student Work
Our Excursions

Dessau
Our Excursions

Berlin
Berlin
Social Media Liaison

- One position available
- Maintain a weekly blog, post videos, share updates on social media
- $500 stipend for the selected student
Testimonials...

“The Bauhaus exchange was an incredible experience that allowed me the opportunity to experience learning and thinking through an artistic lens.”
Harold Dela Cruz

“Visiting Germany was one of the highlights of my UC San Diego career and I still cherish the friendships I made during my trip to Bauhaus. I am so thankful I got to experience such a rewarding program and learned so much during the trip.”
Ginger Stout

“The knowledge I gained was not only in the classroom but lifelong lessons that I can carry throughout my personal life and professional career. Professor Bussell and Professor Peerson have the passion to see student success beyond the classroom environment.”
Tania Moshirian
Testimonials...

“I look back upon the Bauhaus experience as a cherished time with peers and faculty, and I will always acknowledge its pivotal role in shaping my future interests.”

Jane Kang

“One of my most significant take aways from my experience at Bauhaus was about the way cities are shaped by and continue to grapple with their history.”

Robyn Wong

“Professor Bussell and Professor Peerson worked tirelessly with the students and the Bauhaus faculty to provide as many opportunities as possible for us.”

Garrett Sauls