

Study Abroad UC San Diego Scholarships Application, Spring 2017

For participants departing in Summer 2017 or Fall 2017

UC San Diego students studying abroad received approximately $650,000 in study abroad scholarships last year for their programs. If you are wondering “Should I apply for a scholarship?” The answer is always YES! If you don’t apply you will definitely not receive a scholarship award.

The scholarships managed through our office for this cycle include:

- Friends of the International Center Scholarships
- Chris Borton Memorial Scholarship
- Kameron M. Kordestani Study Abroad Scholarship in Social Sciences
- Study Abroad, UC San Diego General Scholarships (3.0 minimum)
- OAP Scholarships for the following programs: API, IFSA-Butler, ISA, SIT, TEAN
- Lytle Scholarship (Preuss School graduate, Global Seminar applicant)

You can pick up a scholarship flyer from our office for more detailed information about these scholarships.

Prompts for Statements (Two statements needed for application—Put your name and PID on each page)

1) Personal Statement (please submit typed and double-spaced)

Write a Personal Statement in 500 words or less (between 1-2 pages) addressing all of the following:

- How does your program abroad relate to your academic, career, and/or personal objectives?
- Describe your participation in extracurricular and community service activities.
- What are your favorite hobbies and personal interests?

To address the above, you may want to consider:

- Your ability to adapt to different cultures
- How studying abroad may impact you
- Your personal characteristics and experiences that will help you while abroad

2) Statement of Financial Need (please submit typed and double-spaced)

Write a Statement of Financial Need of 500 words or less addressing all of the following:

- Estimated need
- Current funding ability (include any work, fundraising, other scholarship awards)

To write a statement:

- Do not restate information from your Personal Statement
- Address unusual circumstances that affect your eligibility for financial aid or ability to pay the cost of your study abroad program
- Examples may include no parent support, first-generation college student, re-entry student, single parent, parental unemployment, bankruptcy, unforeseen medical expenses, siblings in college, property loss due to fire, flood, or earthquake

PLEASE NOTE: You do not need to be a financial aid recipient to have financial need.

Letter of Recommendation Instructions (One Letter of Rec needed for scholarship application)

You will need a letter of recommendation for this scholarship. Please follow these guidelines:

You will need to print the last page of this application, fill out the top section, and give it to the recommender to complete. If you fail to sign and mark the waiver, Study Abroad, UC San Diego, will automatically waive your access to this letter. It is important to make sure this form is seen by your recommender and be sure to let them know the date of the scholarship deadline (April 4, 2017). Also, please provide the recommender information about the scholarship(s) you are applying to, including eligibility and special requirements.

- Try to obtain a letter from a UCSD faculty member or other academic
- Best not to submit a letter of recommendation from a supervisor, counselor, lab manager, or extracurricular supervisor unless this person's knowledge truly relates directly to your intended study abroad
- Do not submit a letter of recommendation from someone at your high school

PLEASE NOTE: If your study abroad program required a letter of recommendation you may use this same letter for your scholarship application(s) but you must let us know so we can look for your letter of recommendation in TritonsAbroad and attach it to your scholarship. Please email us at abroad@ucsd.edu with the following information:

- Subject Line: "Letter of Recommendation in TritonsAbroad"
- Your full name
- The name of the program for which you should already have a letter of recommendation in TritonsAbroad
- All of the scholarships to which you are applying

Deadline: Tuesday, April 4, 2017, 4:00pm, Paper Copy to the Study Abroad office

By filling out this form you will be considered for all of the scholarships listed on the first page for which you meet minimum eligibility.

FOR THE RECOMMENDER:

Thank you for agreeing to write a recommendation for this applicant for the Study Abroad UC San Diego Scholarship(s). Your letter of recommendation constitutes an essential part of our selection process.

Please type your letter of recommendation and print it out on departmental/UCSD letterhead. Letters of recommendation will ONLY be accepted on official letterhead. In your letter, please address the questions listed below along with any other information you want to share about the applicant.

1. How long and in what capacity have you known the applicant?
2. Please comment on the applicant's specific academic skills and knowledge: cumulative background in your discipline, self-motivation to learn, study habits, intellectual potential, etc.
3. If you have taught the applicant in the language of the proposed country of study (other than English), how would you rate this student's abilities with that language?
4. Please comment on the applicant's personal attributes: overall maturity, seriousness of purpose, and ability to adapt to an intensive course of study in a foreign country.
5. If you have some knowledge of the country and/or institution, please indicate.
6. If you were directing a program abroad would you be reluctant, pleased, or enthusiastic to have this student on your program? Please comment.

Please send your letter of recommendation to: Study Abroad UC San Diego, mailcode 0095 or email abroad@ucsd.edu.

Deadline to be received by Study Abroad UC San Diego: Tuesday, April 4, 2017 by 4:00pm.
