How did my interest in ASL begin?
Paris and LSF

I lived at the Institut national de jeunes sourds (INJS) for 5 months rue St Jacques in the center of Paris

the world’s first public school for the deaf
What we will study...

- Linguistics 9 GS
  - “Sign Languages and Deaf Culture in the U.S. and France”
- Linguistics 149 GS
  - "The Historical Roots of American Sign Language"

great for majors in Linguistics & minors in Language Studies applying for the DEI (diversity) requirement & other requirements depending on your college or major comparing ASL and LSF signs and grammatical structures and cultural differences between American deaf people and French deaf people Linguistics 149GS

The Historical Roots of American Sign Language

Old LSF
Native American signs
Black ASL
Mexican Sign Language
Hawai’ian Sign Language
Historical sites and excursions

The world’s first public school for the deaf at rue St. Jacques the Abbe de l’Epee
our classroom in the Marais

the deaf school from rue St. Jacques a short walk to the Jardin du Luxembourg Overnight excursion to Reims to attend the festival International Visual Theatre

Deaf theatre company
Publisher of Sign Language books
LSF courses for hearing people and more Cafe Signes

Owned and operated by deaf people in LSF
And of course...

Paris! the Metro shared housing with other students in apartments where French people live Cafe de Flore
& many other amazing restaurants
