University of California at San Diego

The Making of the Modern World 14: Revolution, Industry, Empire

Theme: Charisma and Commodities

Winter quarter 2022

Course Description. In this course we survey global history from the middle of the eighteenth century until World War One. We explore how Europe became capitalist and how the exploitation of other regions made that capitalism possible. We explore how women and men, people of different races and ethnicities, the landed and the landless, the urban and the rural, the powerful and the victims shaped this exciting, dramatic, and fateful era of the global past.

Office Hours: Tuesdays 8-9 AM. Can do zoom office hours by request.

Teaching Assistants: The TA for Section A 01 and A 02 is ......TA for Section A03 and A04 is ....TA for Remote Sections is......

Course format
This will be a remote course for the first two weeks and possibly longer. We will not use clickers. The twice-weekly lectures are podcast and the Power Points for each lecture will be posted on Canvas a few moments before the lecture begins.

CANVAS web site: https://canvas.ucsd.edu

The At a Glance page for each week provides you with a basic outline of what you are responsible for each week: To Read, To Watch, To Complete.

In addition to the main site, your TA also has an independent site including modules for submitting all assignments.
Use the CANVAS site to visit the Reserve site at the Library and do the academic readings, to consult the syllabus, to receive your prompts for the Critical Analysis assignments, and to receive the study questions for the final.

Academic Integrity:

It is your responsibility to know and observe all of the UCSD rules concerning academic integrity and plagiarism. You should familiarize yourself with your responsibilities and rights under the UCSD Policy on Integrity of Scholarship, and with the MMW policies governing academic integrity included in the “Guidelines for MMW Papers” sheet. Any student found to have committed a substantial violation of the University rules concerning academic integrity will fail the entire course and the professor will initiate a charge of academic misconduct. A second offense will generally result in suspension or permanent expulsion from the University. If you have any questions about what constitutes plagiarism, how to credit the work of others properly, or how to evaluate sources for quality and reliability, please talk to your TA and the professor to discuss the matter.

Students with Disabilities:

Students requesting accommodations and services for this course due to a disability or injury must provide a current Authorization for Accommodation (AFA) letter issued by the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) prior to eligibility for requests. Receipt of AFAs in advance is necessary for appropriate planning for the provision of reasonable accommodations. OSD Academic Liaisons also need to receive current AFA letters if there are any changes to accommodations. For additional information, contact the Office for Students with Disabilities: 858-534-4382; or email: osd@ucsd.edu, OSD website: https://osd.ucsd.edu/

Title IX Statement:

The Office for the Prevention of Harassment and Discrimination (OPHD) is the Title IX Office for UC San Diego and investigates reports of sexual harassment, sexual violence, dating and domestic violence and stalking. You may file a report online with the UC San Diego Office for the Prevention of Harassment and Discrimination (OPHD). For further information about OPHD, please visit http://ophd.ucsd.edu/. Or you may call OPHD at 858-534-8298.

Please note that University employees (including all faculty and teaching and research assistants), who are not confidential resources, are designated Responsible Employees. Responsible Employees are required to report any incidents of sexual violence or sexual harassment to OPHD.

If you are not ready to file a report, but wish to receive confidential support and advocacy, please contact CARE at SARC: http://students.ucsd.edu/sponsor/sarc/ CARE at SARC provides violence prevention education for the entire UCSD campus and offers free and confidential services for students, staff and faculty impacted by sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking. Accessing resources at CARE at SARC will not constitute a report to the University.

Map as History: Look for this digital platform on the class web site. Selected episodes will be shown in class. Use the annotated maps in your home study sessions to test yourself on your mastery of major wars, treaties, and changes in the maps. Your sign in is UCSD and your password is History. Using this platform does not count for points and you will not be tested on the maps.

Films: You will be watching three class films: Marie Antoinette by Sophia Coppolo; Les Miserables, and Belle. They are streaming through the Library Reserve system. Questions about the content of the film may well appear on the examinations. Treat them as a text which you study, as well as enjoy.

Please do not share any class material with those not enrolled in the class. As you well know, some students donate or sell exams, guidelines, and class notes to nefarious institutions who seek to make a profit from the educational materials developed specifically for UCSD students. If your name is identified with any material from this class appearing on the internet, the consequences will be very severe for the student who has shared this material.

Class texts:

David A. Bell, Men on Horseback: The Power of Charisma in the Age of Revolution

Olaudah Equiano, The Interesting Narrative and other Writings of Olaudah Equiano. Full text of the memoir is available online at https://www.gutenberg.org/files/15399/15399-h/15399-h.htm]

How to Access the Readings: In addition to the textbook, there are three different types of readings: academic articles, located on Library Reserve page [make sure you are signed into the VPN network]; direct links to primary sources found embedded in the syllabus and in the weekly schedule in the modules on CANVAS. Two of the books are online in their entirety, [Equiano memoir and Ourika]. The third book is David A Bell, Men on Horseback (Picator Press, 2020.) This book will be on reserve hard copy in the Library and on electronic reserves. Use it there or order your own copy on Kindle. Another good option is your local public library, which should own the book.
